Parental responsibility may be shared between a number of people beyond the child's natural parents. Married parents have equal parental responsibility; on separation or divorce both parents continue to have responsibility. Unmarried fathers may acquire parental responsibility in one of five ways:

- a) by making a parental responsibility agreement with the mother.
- b) he may apply to Court for an order which gives him parental responsibility:
- c) by marrying the mother;    d) by being made a guardian;    e) by obtaining a residence order.

INFORMATION RELATING TO CHILDREN NOT LIVING PERMANENTLY WITH THEIR PARENTS IN KENT (Including children of service personnel)

If the child's residence at the present address (whether living with parents or any other person) is not permanent, please state the reason and probable duration of the stay, and give the address of the person with whom the child normally resides:

Is the child resident with foster parents?    YES        NO   

If 'yes', which Authority is financially responsible for maintenance?

With whom does the child normally spend his/her holidays?
